PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Divine One, we thank you that you are a God who provides second chances. Like Jonah, we have often rejected your mission of mercy for others and for ourselves. Like Jonah, we would have preferred that you squash those we dislike and simply leave us out of your plans for salvation. But you have not. You have relentlessly pursued us in our rebellion. Today, we return to you. We ask that you would forgive us for our recalcitrant hearts. May we today relish the second chance. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

COMMUNAL PRAYER

God of silence and God of all sound, help us to listen. Help us to do the deep listening to the sounds of our souls, waiting to hear your soft voice calling us deeper into you. Give us attentive ears that begin to separate the noise from the sounds that are you; you who have been speaking to us and through us our whole lives, for so long that you can seem like background noise. Today help us hear you anew. Amen.

POSTLUDE

*Stand as you are able

Remembering in prayer:

Pat Stevens' brother in hospital for pneumonia.

The Mohny family, grieving the loss of Teri's father and now their 15-year-old cat as well.

Rejoicing with:

Nancy MacMorris-Adix with a good health report.

Richard & Pauline Mather as they celebrate their 65th wedding anniversary.

As always, every age is welcome in the sanctuary for our communal worship! The nursery will be available as an "escape room" and includes service-streaming capabilities.

Teal colored attendance pads are at the center aisle of your row. Please fill it out and pass it down the row, returning it to the center when done. Leave completed sheets on your seat as you leave.
